BIRMINGHAM AREA PREPARES TO BURY ITS DEAD; TOLL OF DISASTER AT 84

Whole District Grief Stricken As Result of Great Mine Accident

SIXTEEN OF VICTIMS
STILL NOT IDENTIFIED

Repairs Hurried At Mine And May Resume Production
Monday

(Associated Press.)
BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 24.—The Birmingham district today prepared to bury the first of its 84 dead, whose lives were snuffed out Wednesday by an explosion of coal dust in Dolomite mine No. 3 of the Woodward Iron Company, 16 miles west of this city.
The dead belong to the district, for virtually every settlement and city is represented in the casualty list and graves were being dug today in nearly every little cemetery between Birmingham, Bessemer, Ansley and the mine.

Sixteen of the victims, in an under-taking establishment in Bessemer where yesterday and last night men worked unceasingly to prepare the 75 bodies there for burial, had not been identified early today. One was a white man and the other fifteen were negroes.

Identification of some of the negroes was declared virtually impossible, because the faces were burned beyond recognition.

At the mine where the only evidence of the disaster was the charred woodwork of the concrete tipples, fired by the blast as the flames spouted from the slope, repairs were being made, with the expectation that coal production would be resumed Monday.

INSURANCE LOSS GIVEN.

(Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—The insurance loss under the Alabama compensation laws as a result of the deaths of 84 miners and the injury of some 60 others in the explosion in the Woodward Iron Company's mine No. 3, near Birmingham, last Wednesday, will be more than $300,- 000, according to estimates of Chicago insurance companies today.

The compensation risks on the Woodward Iron Company's properties is carried by a Chicago casualty concern and is reinsured by a syndicate of companies in several states. The contract covering the risk, it was said, provides that the amount of the loss, when determined, must be placed in Alabama banks to be held in trust for settlement of claims.

Steps to carry out this stipulation are being taken, it was said. It is estimated that under the Alabama laws each death will cost the insurance companies about $3,400 and an average of about $170 will be paid to each injured person.

BESSEMER MOURNS.

(Associated Press.)
BESSEMER, Ala., Nov. 24.—Bessemer, a city of 20,000 souls, in the heart of Alabama's industrial and mining district, for one hour today stopped all business, closed all schools and bowed the knee in worship as a mark of respect to the 84 dead victims of the Dolomite mine disaster Wednesday.

As the first body was removed from a local undertaker's establishment, on its way to a nearby cemetery, bells throughout the municipality pealed forth solemn notes. It was the signal for general cessation of business.

RELIEF FUND STARTED.

(Associated Press.)
BIRMINGHAM, Nov. 24.—As a "concrete expression of sympathy" the United Mine Workers of America today telegraphed local district officials that $5,000 had been sent for urgent relief to those in distress.

EDITORIAL

A meeting will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Albany Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of discussing the organization of a community industrial club. If you wish to see better conditions and the awakening of Rip Van Winkle from the long sleep go there and help yourself and your neighbor. Do not sulk in your tent and say "let it go as it is" but put your shoulder to the wheel with the other fellow and "Let's Go." We are on the eve of a great development, will you prepare to meet it and take full advantage? This is the move in the right direction.

Gathered around tables at the Lyons Hotel last night fifty representative men of varied lines of endeavor pledged their best efforts, to give their best energies to furthering the interests of this community. These men went on record as favoring the organization of a commercial body whose sole object was to unselfishly work to develop this, one of the most favored spots in the south, and to "get busy" and bring us into our own. Undeniably there has been comparatively little done to take advantage of the possibilities here and this was voiced by a number of speakers who urged upon those present the necessity of acting at once and bringing about conditions that will put this community in position to meet the flood of prosperity upon which this great section is apparently on the eve.

Specific instances were given where men of resource and ability who were seeking locations for the establishment of industries had passed this community by and located at other points, for the reason only that there has not been the proper community spirit here and the organization lacking here that would place before prospective investors the manifold local advantages and extend a warm welcome, to aid in every possible way those who want to come to this most favored section.

James Johnson presided and infused the spirit into the meeting so necessary to bring out the best thought. The time is ripe to act and if the expressions heard last night and the many valuable suggestions offered are taken advantage of it argues well for the taking on of a new life here and an early realization of the beginning of the building of a community spirit that will put the "can't" fellows out of the running.

The chair appointed J. H. Calvin and W. W. Rahm to work out plans and appoint committees to co-operate with them in presenting a concrete proposition for the benefit of the whole. Mr. Calvin appointed Walter Clapton, W. W. Fussell, James Johnson, Foster H. Pointer and W. E. Roper to assist him and Mr. Rahm will probably select his appointees at the meeting to be held tonight at the Chamber of Commerce of all interested in making this a better and more prosperous community.

REEDER SENTENCED TO A LIFE TERM ON CHARGE OF MURDER

James Reeder, aged citizen of Morgan County, was found guilty of murder in the first degree by a jury of twelve men late last night, after having Reeder's case before them since early in the day Thursday.
Reeder was sentenced to life imprisonment. His crime, according to a jury of his peers, was that of murdering an infant child on or about February 8 of this year. Reeder was found guilty in a previous trial and given a life sentence, but the verdict was set aside on technical grounds.

"We the jury find the defendant guilty as charged, and assess the penalty of life imprisonment." These are the words read by the clerk, being the verdict arrived at by the jury after an all day trial of this case, which had attracted great interest over the county, where the defendant was well and favorably known, and had led a quiet, peaceable life, extending over a period of over a quarter of a century.

The case went to trial at 10:15 o'clock Thursday morning, the jury taking the box at this hour, the case consuming the entire day. The arguments of attorneys were completed at a late hour that evening. The jury was then allowed to go to supper in charge of a deputy, and came back to the court house and at once went into its deliberations. Judge Kyle held court open until 9 o'clock, when the jurors announced that they had arrived at a verdict.

The case has been twice tried, the same verdict being rendered in each instance. The defendant, throughout the two trials, has stoutly maintained his innocence of the charge, and received the verdict without any affectation.

It is not known whether or not an appeal will be taken to a higher court.

BUTLER APPOINTED.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 24.— Special.—W. E. Butler, of New Hope, member of the state senate, will succeed Joseph J. Bradley, of Huntsville, deceased, as a member of the board of revenue of Madison County.
Senator Butler's appointment was announced by Governor Kilby today.
During the three sessions of the legislature since January, 1919, Senator Butler was chairman of the committee on finance and taxation.

DECATUR COUNCIL GRANTS FRANCHISE TO TRACTION LINE

A franchise for 30 years late yesterday was granted to the Alabama Traction Company, successors of the North Alabama Traction Company, as operators of the street car line in special session.

The franchise plea of John B.
Weakley, head of the company, was taken under advisement by the Albany council last night, a committee composed of Mayor Britain, Alderman E. G. Cherry and City Attorney Hudson being appointed to consider the proposal and report to the council. The council plans a meeting Tuesday afternoon to take action on the request.

Mr. Weakley recently purchased the traction company which had been operated under jurisdiction of the federal court for many months. It is understood he plans to improve the local lines.

Negro Murder Case Is Called In Court

The case of Athens Aldridge, negro, alias Crab Aldridge, was called at today's opening of the court. The work of empanelling the jury was completed at 10:30 o'clock, and the trial entered into. Aldridge is alleged to have fired the shot which killed a negro by the name of Garth, several months ago, at a negro gathering near Priceville. Garth lingered for several weeks, and died. In the meantime, Aldridge made bond, and has since been at liberty. A large number of witnesses are on hand to testify for each side of the case, and probably most of the day will be consumed in its hearing. Attorney W. W. Callahan is representing the defendant. Circuit Solicitor Dave C.
Almon and County Solicitor Cliff C.
Almon appearing for the state.

mar Poindexter, manager of the Anniston Inn, have been advised that Mr.
Poindexter, who was hurt seriously in an automobile accident Thursday, is improving. The car in which Mr.
Poindexter was riding collided with a cement culvert, it was stated.

INTERESTING MEET OF DISTRICT CLUBS IS HELD FRIDAY AT METHODIST CHURCH

Representatives Here From All Sections of the Tennessee Valley

VISITORS WELCOMED
BY LOCAL SPEAKERS

Reports Are Made By Nineteen Clubs In The First District

The annual convention of the First District organization of the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs closed soon after noon today, with a luncheon at the Lyons Hotel. Just before the motion to adjourn prevailed Mrs.
Karr, chairman of the committee on place to meet next fall recommended Florence and the convention agreed to the suggestion. Officers were elected as follows: Manager for the First District, Mrs. L. P. Troup, assistant manager, Mrs. D. D. Glasgow, of Athens; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. S. O. Holmes, of Huntsville.

The report of the resolutions committee was adopted, which included among other things, expressions of warm appreciation for the hospitable manner in which the convention was entertained.

Today's session of the First District convention of the Federated Women's Clubs, opened at 9:45 at the First Methodist Church of Decatur, with Mrs. L. P. Troup presiding and Mrs. Earle Calvin, the secretary, at her post. The meeting was featured by three notable addresses, the first on by Mrs. C. Mitchell Williamson, state editor for the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs; the second was by Miss Mariette Smith, of the state child welfare department, and the third was by Mrs. R. B. Patten, of Athens, chairman of the resolutions committee.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Dr. Charles C. Davison, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Decatur. The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read by Mrs. Calvin and approved, after which the chairman announced the committees on resolutions and place of next fall's meeting.

The address of Mrs. Williamson preceded these appointments. This speaker said that when she agreed to act as state editor it was her understanding, large publicity had to be given to the activities of the clubs throughout the state only once a month; but that it later appeared that she must furnish "column" news as to the work of the clubs, as often as possible, and at least once a week, to the state papers. "We are having an opportunity to do big things through the columns of the press," declared the speaker.

"And if we grow, it must be frequent and the right kind of publicity."

In this connection Mrs. Williamson urged her hearers to keep all the club news of state interest sent in to her, with as many copies as possible, and with instructions as to which newspapers the news was to be offered to. The speaker urged subscriptions to the "Federal Bulletin," the national organ of the American Federated Women's Clubs.

Miss Smith Pragmatical.

In the sense of being practical and businesslike, Miss Smith proved to be pragmatical in her address. She said "something should be done" regarding social betterment, and illustrated her statement by the action of a woman who wished to help a man who had lost one of his lower limbs.
The man protested that he could not do anything, as he was legless. She won responded: "I'll get you a leg."

VICTIMS OF DOUBLE KILLING ARE LAID TO REST; SLAYER STILL REPORTED AT LARGE

Crow, Yates and Wood At Supper When England Began Firing

SLAIN PHYSICIAN WAS PROMINENT IN SECTION

Alleged Slayer Said To Be Planning To Give
Self Up

The two victims of the tragedy which occurred near Basham's Gap Tuesday night were buried Thursday afternoon. England, it is understood, is still at large. It has been learned authoritatively that Crow, Yates and Wood were at supper at the home of England. England was seen to arise from the table, go into an adjoining room and return with a pistol, which he began to empty at the three men who were seated. It is said that no argument had taken place between the men, who were there to move the family of England to the farm of Crow. England and his wife had been separated at one time, it is alleged.

When the killing took place, all fled the place but an aged mother of Mrs.
England, who remained throughout the night, keeping watch over the two dead men. It is alleged that England returned at some time during the night, went to bed, and, according to the aged woman, slept soundly for three hours. He at one time resolved to go and give himself up to the authorities, but later declined.
Up to this time he is still at large, according to persons who were interviewed Thursday. It is said that England's mind is unbalanced, that he had lost a little son lately, and that he has brooded over that fact.

DOUBLE KILLING.

MOULTON, Ala., Nov. 24.—Special.—Another murder has been added to the long list already charged up to Lawrence County—a double killing that occurred Tuesday evening just over the border line in Winston County, at the home of one England; the slain men were Dr. J.
S. Crow, of east Lawrence County and Hayes Yates of near England's home; the England home is in the center of the forest reservation and some difficulty exists as to getting reliable information but as given by a man who visited the scene Wednesday afternoon it is that Dr. Crow had gone to England's home to see about moving his family to his own home down near Danville. While eating supper, it is said that England shot Dr. Crow and then passed out and asked Yates what he had to say about the matter. "Not a word," was the reply, but a shot felled him instantly.
It is said that England went to the home of his brother back in Lawrence County and gave himself up to the sheriff of Winston County. Information was to the effect that the bodies of the two men were still untouched at noon Wednesday, awaiting the coroner's inquest—the one at the table and the other in the yard. Dr.
Crow was a practicing physician near the county line out from Danville and is said to have been successful. He leaves a large family of children.

Tabulation Given On Crop of Cotton

Tabulation of the department of commerce showed Morgan County had gained 17,259 bales of cotton prior to November 14, 1922, as compared with 15,223 bales ginned prior to the same date in 1921. This information was made public here today by W. V. Davidson, reporter for Morgan County.

FOUR SUITS FILED TO RECOVER SUMS ON COST OF CAMPS

(Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Legal action to recover more than $20,000, 000 alleged to have been obtained fraudulently from the government in the construction of four army cantonments during the war, was instituted today by Attorney General Daugherty as the first formal step in a far-reaching prosecution of those who held contracts for the building of war camps.

The four suits, begun today, were filed simultaneously in United States district courts in four states and involved charges of fraud in connection with the construction of Camp Upton, in New York; Camp Jackson, in South Carolina; Camp Sherman, in Ohio; Camp Funston, in Kansas.

BIRTHDAY DINNER BY P. T. A. TONIGHT

An attractive birthday dinner is being prepared by the ladies of the Albany High School Parent-Teachers' Association, to be served tonight, beginning at 6 o'clock, at 620 Second Avenue.

Tickets are being sold today to the general public, which is being appealed to on the ground that the dinner will prove a "value received" proposition and also because the Parent-Teachers' Association's treasury is depleted, due almost entirely to the determination of that organization to serve free noonday luncheons to the needy children who attend the public schools of Albany.

According to the committee in charge of the sale of the tickets, they are seventy-five cents each and can be obtained at any of the drug stores or at the dinner tonight. The following is the menu of the birthday dinner:

Hot baked chicken and dressing Creamed Irish potatoes
Cold Slaw, Baked Apples Rolls, Coffee, Pie

FIRST LIEUTENANT OF DE VALERA PUT TO DEATH, BLOODY WARFARE LOOMING

Action of Military Authorities Comes As Real Surprise
To England

MOVEMENT IS REMOVED

De Valera's Warning of Reprisals Is Recalled By Dublin Correspondent

(Associated Press.)

DUBLIN, Nov. 24.—Erskine Childers, chief lieutenant of Eamon De Valera, was executed here today. Execution was believed to have been by shooting.

He was executed at 7 o'clock this morning for having had an automatic pistol in his possession, it is announced in an official bulletin given out by the national army.

The brief army report states that Childers was tried by a military court at Portobello Barracks, Dublin, November 17, charged with being in possession, without proper authority, of an automatic pistol when apprehended by national forces November 10 at Aunamoe House, County Wicklow.

The accused, the report adds, was found guilty and sentenced to death and the finding and sentence being fully confirmed, the execution was carried out this morning.

Childers, 52, a lieutenant commander in the Irish republican army and one of the right hand men of De Valera, was an ardent proponent of an Irish republic and strongly opposed ratification of the treaty setting up the Irish free state on the grounds that it meant absorption of Ireland in the British empire.

ENGLAND SURPRISED.

(Associated Press.)

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Announcement of the execution in Dublin of Erskine Childers, leading lieutenant of Eamon De Valera, was received here shortly after noon today. It came as a surprise to England, where it was believed the free state authorities would hesitate to impose this penalty.

The execution removes the most important figure in the republican movement in Ireland, next to Mr. De Valera, with whom Childers, a man of strong personality, is generally credited here with having had strong influence.

To Childers is ascribed perhaps the leading part in engineering the present armed revolt against the free state government.

The question which immediately sprang into the minds of Londoners interested in Irish affairs, when they heard the news of the Childers execution, was whether the Irish republicans would attempt reprisals, but it was thought unlikely that these would have to be reckoned with.

The Dublin correspondent of the Press Association, however, notes that Eamon De Valera the other day made a threat that blood would flow if Childers were executed. The situation during the next few days is likely to be pregnant with ugly possibilities, he adds.

At the meeting yesterday of the ment was made that every member of that organization had signed the annual Red Cross roll call, since the tice Day. As county chairman of the campaign, W. W. Rahm with a few expressions of appreciation presented the club with a handsome banner showing the fine record made by Kiwanians.

WE FAVOR ACCEPTANCE OF HENRY FORD'S BID FOR MUSCLE SHOALS

FRANK BACON, PEERLESS IN THAT HE REACHED THE AVERAGE PERSON.

Before his death Frank Bacon, the creator of "Lightnin' Bill Jones," had attained not only to world fame and national reputation, but he was regarded throughout the country as a national hero. This country could have sustained the loss of many of its statesmen, scholars, builders, and great business men better than it can stand to lose Frank Bacon. Because of Mr. Bacon's local connection—being an own cousin of two well known young men of the Twin Cities, his loss is a peculiarly acute one to this community. The character created by Bacon was one that always is loved by Americans. There were frailties in "Lightnin'," but he was free from bitterness, shrewd resourceful and with all merry every day. "Lightnin'" will take his place with such characters as Rip Van Winkle in our earlier literature, and with the character of David Harum, as created by Westcott in his book by that name, and with Denham Thompson in "Uncle Josh" in the Old Homestead.

As for financial success, it is enough to say that "Lightnin'" ran for three years in one of our largest cities and was withdrawn while it was still drawing large houses to be put on the secondary cities of that nation where it met with similar success. And the road companies carried it to such a large number of the smaller cities, and all the while "Lightnin'" increased in popularity as the years passed. The play was distinctly American, and it will prove a lasting contribution to the history of dramatic art. It is because Frank Bacon reached and influenced so many people, is why he will be missed more than statesmen, builders and great business men. There are many of our national figures who bulk larger and who are surrounded with a greater halo of dignity—but few if any of our so-called outstanding men, had the power over the masses of the people as had Frank Bacon. The fineness of the tribute due the creator of "Lightnin'" is due to the fact that he made himself the companion and friend of the "average" citizen of our great land. There may be men of his generation who, have influenced great movements more than Bacon; there may be men who have moved certain classes and professions of our people more than Bacon; and there may be law makers and high officials who have directed the destiny of the nation and the world than Bacon, but because he moved, inspired and made the average man better and happier, he goes down in death without a peer.

In the road companies "Lightnin' Bill Jones" was portrayed by Milton Nobles, whose ability to catch the spirit of the original "Lightnin'", made his productions almost on a par with those of Bacon himself.

Old play goers will remember Milton Nobles as the creator and producer of "From Sire to Son" and "Phoenix"—a number of years ago, before Mr. Nobles immortalized himself in "Lightnin' Bill Jones."

THE AVERAGE MAN WHO MAKES HIMSELF IS SAFE FOR HIMSELF AND OTHERS.

Russian nobles exiled from their country, following the mighty revolution are finding it hard indeed to fit into modern economic conditions. A former Colonel in command at Vilna, before the destruction of the old Russian regime is now a dish washer in Paris. He is a victim of circumstances. He went down with a system that he did little to create, but he suffers none the less. He is in a much worse condition than his fellow servants who were brought up to work. This colonel doubtless considers it a humiliation for him to do menial tasks.

When the extremes of society are being driven hither and thither by revolution, is a good time for the average man to learn to appreciate his position and his advantages. As never before the average man is coming into his own. He is more immune from the tricks of destiny, than any other. Leaving out disease and bodily injury—the average man, if he knows how to work, is in a real sense the master of his fate. A few years ago, the Russian colonel, would have laughed at the idea of changing personalities and places with the French artisans he is now associated with; but time has shown that they occupied a much more secure position than did the army colonel. Besides it is next to impossible for ex-military chieftans to fit in with any real and useful life. They are left where they often feel no loyalty and no pride in the work they do. If their hands should ever become skilled—still they will never know how to work with their might and with their heart. They might get their minds trained even, but their temperments can hardly ever be modified to where they fit in with their fellow workers.

It was the destructive effects of "extremism," that caused a certain wise man to exclaim "Give me neither poverty nor riches". Because the deposed Russian colonel cannot help from feeling himself as just a little better than his associates and as if he were a kind of fallen angel—he will doubtless be a burden to himself and to all with whom he comes in contact. The average man, when under the stress of necessity, and because of a life time experience in real work learns the trick of fitting in with whatsoever environment falls to his lot. He finds out that work means loyalty, interest and enthusiasm and not just duty doing or accomplishing set tasks. It is comparatively easy for the average man to learn such a great and valuable lesson as cooperation—team-work but by what manner of means can it be expected that such people as war, cast and selfishness make, will ever come into their own, sufficiently to make good workers and valuable citizens.

RIGHT, WILL YET PREVAIL.

In spite of all that has been said and done, Henry Ford today is the outstanding figure in the final development of the Muscle Shoals, and the people of this section and the entire south will not rest content, until he be given its award. Wherever your turn; view it from every angle; turn upside down and around, at every turn you will see the vision of Ford, bringing to its development the greatest good to the greatest number of people, and this is, or should be the end sought in every great undertaking.

The truth about the whole matter in a nutshell is simply this: great manufacturing concerns which would be greatly disturbed in their plans of wringing tribute from a people who must buy their product, saw the handwriting on the wall, and began with might and main and money, to so becloud the issue that it would be long drawn out. But the old maxim, "nothing is settled until it is settled right," has spurred the supporters of Ford even in the darkest hours of the controversy, and today, they see the glimmer of light above all the efforts which have been thrown in the way, and they believe that right will yet prevail. The cast of the recent balloting over the nation has pointed the way, and the verdict of the ballot speaks silently, but what it does say is very emphatic.

With several thousand dollars more realized from the cotton crop of the county than anticipated when it was being planted, the planters can congratulate themselves that some agencies put on foot by them as a body of growers, had much to do in helping to swell their pocket books the present fall. It is no longer a matter of conjecture; the fact that thousands of bales found their way into the folds of the Alabama Cotton Pool Association, and was there correctly graded, classed, insured and stored in the association's own warehouse, and is only being withdrawn and sold in just sufficient quantities to feed the market, therein lies the secret.

It is the bounded duty of the planter to help himself, and he can best do this by co-operating in this matter another year, and thus strengthening the hands of those who have helped themselves to a better footing, and have incidentally helped others who were not members of the organization. The fruit growers of the West is the greatest object lesson on what co-operation can and will do.

Every atom of thought whether idle or serious, finds lodgment at some point, and reflects back and forward, lighting up the avenue through which we pass from the cradle to the grave.

NOT SO SLOW.

"Yes," said the old man to his visitor, "I am proud of my girls and would like to see them comfortably married, and as I have made a little money they will not go penniless to their husbands. There is Mary, 25 years old, and a really good girl, I shall give her $3,000 when she marries. Then comes Bet, who won't see 35 again. I shall give her $5,000 when she marries; and the man who takes Eliza, who is 10, will have $5,000."

The young man reflected a moment and then asked: "You haven't one about 50, have you?"

A light heart and an empty head never knows sorrow.

Somehow these national beauty contests never seem to settle anything.

It would be a rather quiet old world if it wasn't for the noise made by the minority.

All play and no work make no jack.

A few years back if a cop heard a sound like a succession of shots he was all activity. In the modern times he only wonders whose tire blew out or whose motor backfired.

November days are wet and drear, But gosh, just wait till winter's here.

A hard one, we are plainly told, Wherein we trade our gold for coal.

A man can kid himself into believing anything. But oh, boy, when he tries to kid his wife.

Fashion says men's winter clothes will be about the same, except for a cleaning.

"I sigh heavily," said Mr. Dubwaite.

"Does that get any results?" "Yes, She tells me I'm working too hard."

SCHOOL OF METHODS WILL CLOSE TONIGHT

The closing exercises of the School of Methods which is being taught this week at the First Baptist Church of Decatur, will begin at 8 o'clock tonight, to which the general public is cordially invited.

The principal address of the evening will be delivered by Dr. R. L. Creel, president of the Baptist Institute at Bridgeport. Dr. Creel arrived this morning.

With the closing of the school tonight, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lambden, of Montgomery, who for the state Baptist convention, are conducting such schools through Alabama, will leave for Gadsden, where Sunday night they will initiate a school of methods for the Baptists of Gadsden and Etowah County.

A considerable delegation of the Baptist Young People's Society of the Tri-Cities, from the First Baptist Church of Florence, will attend the closing exercises tonight, according to Dr. C. C. Davison.

Examination Night.

Last night's session of the school was held as usual, and the teachers were all at their tasks, with the exception of Rev. R. F. Stuckey, who is still indisposed. Rev. Stuckey's class was taught by Dr. C. C. Davison. It is expected that the full number of students will take the final examinations tonight, which are to be written, and given by each teacher to the class he or she had been instructing for the past week. The first exercise tonight will be a review lesson followed by the examination questions.

The luncheon will be served following the examination, after which the diplomas will be awarded to those who pass.

Short farewell addresses by Mr. and Mrs. Lambden will follow the address of Dr. Creel.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank our many friends for their kindness and words of sympathy during the sickness and death of our dear husband and father. We also thank you for the many pretty florals. May God's richest blessings rest on each and every one of you.

MEMBERS OF SUSPECTED MURDER TRUST.

So startling have become the "poison dinner murders," alleged to involve Mrs. Tillie Klimek and Mrs. Nellie Sturmer Koulik, now estimated at twelve, that Assistant State Attorney William McLaughlin, of Chicago, has been directed to devote his entire time to the case. The so-called Chicago murder trust was composed of women, who carefully worked out diabolical murders with arsenic. Mrs. Klimek has declared Mrs. Koulik supplied her with poison.

ODD FACTS

To salute with the left hand is regarded as an insult by the Mohammedans.

When Elizabeth was queen of England she was partial to fine gloves as presents, giving them to her friends and enjoying it very much when they were given to her.

The police of Prague, Czechoslovakia, carry receipts for fines for various sums in their pockets, and present them for immediate payment to people who break the peace by playing on musical instruments in the streets at the wrong time.

Making Good an Old Boast.

A process has been discovered whereby old leather can be converted into gelatin. Such transformation offers a ready way of utilizing many articles after their value to every one but the junk man appears to be gone. Since head coverings are sometimes made of leather, it would appear that at least the man confident that his candidate will win in an election may literally back up his confidence with the time-honored promise that he will eat his hat in the event that his man loses.

Birmingham Area
Buries Its Dead

The message was from William Green, of Washington, secretary-treasurer, and was addressed to J. R. Kennemer, president of District 20. Mines of the Woodward company Owere said by local line workers' officials to be operated on a non-union basis.

Mr. Green's telegram read: "The loss of human lives, caused by the mine explosion at Birmingham, is appalling to the public. We are again most forcibly reminded of the terrible toll of human life exacted by the coal mining industry. I am sure the sorrow and distress of the survivors and sufferers appeals to the hearts and sympathies of the people. In behalf of the United Mine Workers of America, I extend sincere sympathy to the grief stricken families, surviving relatives and friends. As a concrete expression of our sympathy, I am mailing you a check for $5,000 to be used for the purpose of supplying urgent relief to those who are deep in distress."

DO YOU WONDER?

Asks This Lady, "That I'm a Believer in Cardui?"—Had Been So Weak She Had to Go to Bed.

Oswatimie, Kans.—Mrs. E. E. Keast, formerly of Illinois, residing here, says: "We moved to this state eleven years ago, and I had good health for a long while, and then some year or so ago I had a bad sick spell."

"I got so weak I couldn't go. I couldn't stand on my feet at all. I had to go to bed. I suffered a great deal. I was so nervous I felt I couldn't live. I tried medicines, and everything had the best of attention, yet I wasn't able to get up. I lay for three months, not able to do anything."

"My husband is a bill poster and has circulars distributed. One day there came to be a Ladies Birthday Almanac among his circulars. I read it, and told some of the family to get me a bottle of Cardui."

"I quit all other medicines and took it (Cardui) faithfully, and two weeks from the time I began to take Cardui I was out of bed—better than for months."

"I kept it up and continued to improve until I was a well woman."

"Do you wonder that I am a believer in Cardui? I certainly am. And I am sure there is no better tonic made for women than Cardui."

Disabled Veterans Must Apply Prior To December 16 for Their Compensation

"The rehabilitation act, which provides for the vocational education of certain classes of disabled veterans, has a provision which states that applications for vocational education, must be made prior to December 16, 1922," declared Col. Charles R. Forbes, director of the United States Veterans' Bureau.

"This provision of the rehabilitation act means that those who have delayed making application for any reason whatsoever must make this application prior to December 16 or lose the opportunity of receiving this government aid," Col. Forbes continued.

"There are several ways in which this application for vocational training can be made. Application may be made by writing a letter to any one of the bureau offices expressing a desire to apply for the training which the government offers. It should be remembered that it is necessary for the applicant to sign his name so that the bureau may consider the application as made by the man himself. Wherever it is possible it is best for the applicant to make his application in person at one of the district or sub-district offices of the Veterans' Bureau. Application forms may be obtained at any of the Bureau offices, or from the American Legion, American Red Cross, the Disabled American Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars and other co-operating agencies. These forms should be signed, filled out and forwarded to one of the Veterans' Bureau Offices," Col. Forbes said. "If a form is not available, a letter will be accepted as an application."

Where the post mark of the letter of application or the forms forwarded as an application show that it was made on or before December 15, the application will be considered as where the man enters the office before the close of the working day on December 15, the application will be considered. However, applications mailed later than this date will be too late and persons so applying will have lost the privilege of taking advantage of vocational training provided under this act.

The United States Veterans' Bureau has called this provision of the rehabilitation act to the attention of veteran organizations and have requested them to inform all ex-service men of the necessity of making early application. Persons who are in doubt as to whether or not they have a valid application on file should take steps immediately to ascertain from one of the offices of the bureau the status of their applications. The government is anxious that all ex-service men who are entitled to the benefits of this act should take advantage of this opportunity. All applications received will have the fullest consideration and if the facts presented are sufficient to meet the provisions of the rehabilitation act, the claimant would be awarded such benefits as are provided under the act.

Injured Man Still Regaining Health

News has been received by relatives of C. B. Thrasher, who was seriously injured in an automobile wreck at a railroad crossing at Falkville Sunday afternoon, and carried to St. Vincent's hospital on No. 3, the train which hit the car, is still alive, and some hopes are expressed for his recovery. His companion, J. E. Noogin, died Sunday night, a few hours after reaching the hospital. The young men lived at Boaz, and were making a cross country trip when the fatal accident occurred.

Hartselle News

The Athens, Maconic Minstrels gave a most acceptable performance at the public school auditorium Thursday night. The audience was a most responsive one, and was crowded to capacity. The chorus is deserving of special mention, as are also the individual soloists. A quartette, superior to many heard by the public rendered selections genuinely fine. An interlocutor, Fred Wall covered himself with glory, and could have easily passed for a professional.

Deserving special mention was the orchestra, under the leadership of C. C. Fuller, piano; Jesse Boston, cornet; M. Williams, trombone; Carlos Wood, drums; Miss Alice Hatton, violin. A medley of Southern melodies was perhaps the most appreciated of any of the orchestra selections. At the end of the performance Mr. Fred Wall appeared before the footlights and thanked the large audience for their presence and the interest manifested in the entertainment, and gave Hartselle people an invitation to come to his town if ever they had a home talent play to produce, and he promised to lend it support. The P. T. A. of Hartselle nipped from the play, under whose auspices the show was given, a neat sum, which will go to the interests of the work at this place.

Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Booth left Friday morning on the Pan-American for Nashville, Tenn., to be present at the football game between Morgan School, of Petersburg, Tenn., and Hume Fogg, of Nashville. Dr. Booth has a son on the Morgan School team, who has played in all the games of the season with the exception of the game with Vanderbilt freshmen. The prep teams of Tennessee are fighting hard for the championship, which will be decided by the next three games.

Howard Kent has returned to his home at Tampa, Fla., after several days spent with his parents here. Mr. Kent has formed a connection at Tampa with a large real estate business, and is succeeding splendidly, his specialty being the sale of farm lands.

Neal Britnell has returned to Birmingham after several days spent with his mother and other friends here. Neal is in the dairy business near Birmingham, like the business time and is doing well.

Much interest in the First District meeting of the Women's Federated Clubs, in session at Albany-Decatur, is being taken by the club women of this city. A large number of club members availed themselves of the opportunity to attend, and some are on the program which will be carried out at this time. The Culture Club has a large membership here, and is an organization of the women of several years' standing.

"LASSES" WHITE'S

ALL STAR MINSTRELS
The "Lasses" White All Star Minstrels, now in its third season, and headed by "Lasses" White, the popular peer of black face artists, who delights his audience at every performance, will soon be here.

"Lasses" has endeared himself to the hearts of all of the minstrel loving public, that are fond of clear comedy and humor. He again comes at the head of his own organization, to the Princess Theatre on Dec. 2.

"Lasses" will be pleasantly remembered as the featured comedian with various leading blackface organizations, such as the "Honey Boy" Evans Minstrels. On the passing of "Honey Boy," "Lasses" was selected to fill the void in the minstrel world made vacant by the departure of the lamented Evans, and to say that "Lasses" has made good is stating it mildly, for he has built up a following in the last few years that has never been equaled by any other black-faced artist. He has worked his way up fame's ladder in the last six years step by step, until at the present time he is acknowledged by press and public to be without a rival in his chosen field.

"What 'Lasses' has accomplished would lead many to believe he is a man of mature years, but such is not the case, for 'Lasses' only recently celebrated his thirty-third birthday and contends that he is just starting his life's work. He has made legions of friends wherever he has appeared by his affability and attractive personality. His visits to the various cities invariably takes on the air of an old home week and he is besieged by his admirers. The attraction is entirely new this season, for Speath and company have spared no expenses to make the "Lasses" White Minstrels the last word in minstrel offering. There will be the noonday street parade and band concert at 7:30 in front of the theatre on which occasions a rare musical treat will be given.—Adv.

He Thought His First "Trick" Wouldn't Be Much Harm, S. A. Saved Him In Time

"It wouldn't be wrong," he argued to himself, "it would only be taking something from those who already have too much." Here he was alone, jobless, hungry in a strange city. It surely couldn't be wrong if he took enough to tide him over until he was able to find employment.

He had wandered so long and was so hungry that this youth of 20 was about to rob in order that he might live. From an Eastern city to the Twin Cities, sometimes riding freights, sometimes wandering along the country roads. At every city town and hamlet it had been the same old story, too many home folks out of work; no chances here for a "bum." Still he managed to pick up an odd job here and there, and in that way managed to obtain the simple necessities to carry him on in his never ending search for employment.

Every night beneath some flickering street light he would scribble a few lines to the invalid mother in whose cause he was making his lone pilgrimage. These little notes told nothing of the gnawing hunger, or of the ever increasing despair. No matter how little he earned, half of it went to the mother who lay silent and alone waiting for the news that would tell of a steady job once more.

No letter had come for two weeks now, but she didn't know that it was because he didn't have the heart to write and tell her that it was all hopeless, that he had failed.

Tonight, he was going to "pull" his first "trick." During the day he observed carefully the neglected window in one of the Twin Cities' larger stores. "How easy it would be! Just a little quick work! A visit to the pawn shop in the morning, and then home to mother! He would be able to bring her south with him on his next trip. The South, whose mild climate would help her so much! With these thoughts in mind he slouched about the streets until he came to a certain street corner.

"Where is my wandering boy tonight?" The words came to him out of the stillness of the night. He glanced hurriedly around to see where the singer was. He could not see her, but across the street he saw the dimly lighted hall of the Salvation Army, in its shabby, decrepit old building. The song came from there. Something, he knew not what, urged his tired feet toward the door. Arriving there, he saw the sweet faced singer, and he stood there, head bowed in shame, until the song was finished. He stood there while the "captain" called everyone to give themselves to God for the sake of the mother who was near and dear to every man's heart. The boy, his eyes brimming over with tears, weakly swayed toward the platform, and, with a tremendous effort, he launched

Taylor Painfully Hurt, Report Says

Floyd E. Taylor, former prominent Albany-Decatur resident, was hurt painfully, but not seriously yesterday afternoon when his car turned over near Birmingham, according to information received here this afternoon. Mr. Taylor has been operating the Shelby Coal company's mine for local people who are interested in the project. It is understood he suffered the fracture of several ribs, but was able to confer, via telephone, with local associates today. He will be confined to his home several days.

IN HARD LINES

"I could not work at all and had to take to my bed with a high fever due to intestinal indigestion, gases in my stomach and pain in my right side. I had spent my last cent for doctors and medicine, which gave me no relief. I was in despair. A lodge brother gave me a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy, and the first dose relieved me. Thanks to this medicine I am now in the best of health." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation, which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. When better automobiles are built, Buick will build them

Both are Buick

One has Four Cylinders—the other has Six

The Buick nameplate on the radiator of a car is the mark of merit. Whether the car has four cylinders or six is of secondary importance. The vital fact is that it's a Buick.

The new Buick Four is the ideal automobile for the motorist requiring a light economical car, yet having all the speed, power and sturdiness of larger and costlier cars.

The Buick Six, perfectly appointed, with all the flexibility and smoothness of the six cylinder car at its best, has earned its position among motor cars as the Standard of Comparison.

Both the Buick Four and the Buick Six have the famous Valve-in-Head motor, the same important chassis units, the same handsome body lines. Both are the product of the Buick organization with all its resources, its engineering talent, its wealth of ripe experience.

Choosing between the Four and the Six is simply a matter of size and price. Both are Buick.

Thin? Run-down? Sure Way to Get Right Weight

Increase Your Red-Blood-Cells. That's the Sure Way! S. S. S. Builds Blood-Cells. This Means Strength!

Do you know why insurance companies refuse to insure a great many men because they are under weight? Simply because to be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus energy, minus vitality. It is so easy to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1859, has made so many thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Hollow cheeks fill out. You stop being a calamity-looking. You inspire confidence. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells, S. S. S. will build them. Ladies and gentlemen, a peony, bony face doesn't make you look very important or pretty, does it? Take S. S. S. It contains only pure vegetable medicinal ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again

HER AILMENTS ALL GONE NOW

Mrs. Sherman Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lake, Michigan. "About one year ago I suffered with irregularities and a weakness and at times was obliged to stay off my feet. I doctored with our family physician and he finally said he could not understand my case, so I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After I had taken the first bottle, I could see that I was getting better. I took several more bottles of the Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and I am entirely cured of my ailments. You may publish this letter if you wish."—Mrs. MARY SHERMAN, Route 2, Lake, Mich.

There is one fact women should consider and that is this. Women suffer from irregularities and various forms of weakness. They try this and that doctor, as well as different medicines. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and Mrs. Sherman's experience is simply another case showing the merits of this well-known medicine.

If your family physician fails to help you and the same old troubles persist, why not let it restable to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

Albany Has Little Trouble Winning From Tuscumbia Eleven by 21-0 Score

The golden machine of Albany High, functioning without the services of Fennell and Holt, two regulars, had little difficulty yesterday in winning from Tuscumbia High by a score of 21 to 0.

The local eleven scored touchdowns in each of the final three-quarters and Handy and Batten kicked all of the goals. Tuscumbia again showed a fair offensive team, but her defense was not strong enough to halt the Albany charges. Beck again showed rare ability to advance the ball, but he was watched too closely to permit wide activity. Tuscumbia apparently had been drilled against Albany's passing game and were fairly proficient at breaking it up, but the visitors were not sufficiently alert mentally to solve the various formations Coach Dowdy and Quarterback McAfee brought out of the trick bag for display before the visitors.

Two on-side kicks in the final quarter came near costing Albany a touchdown against her, but Tuscumbia lacked the punch to put it over after they had placed the ball in scoring position.

The game in detail:
Tuscumbia, Albany
deadows, Le. Handy
Jiller, Lt. Bowen
McCloud, Jg. Wilson
Davis, c. Batten
Vagner, r.g. Dodd
Mayes, t.b. Speer
Archer, r.e. Lee
Beck, q. McAfee
Smith, l.h.b. McAfee Sanders, r.h.b. Pepper Ricks, f.b. Tuck
Referee: Burleson; Umpire, Eggers; Head Linesman, Batten.

First Quarter.
Beck kicked to Handy, who returned ten. McAfee hit the line for 2. Tuck slipped off tackle for 6. McAfee made it first down. On the winging shift McAfee made 7. Lee dropped a pass. Pepper made it first down. Handy missed a pass. Tuck went end for 4. Smith intercepted a pass. Sanders drove through for 3. Ricks gained 3 in two bucks. On a kick play Ricks made first down. Beck slipped through for 4. Bowen halted Ricks. Batten stopped Sanders with a 2-yard loss. The ball went over. McAfee failed to gain, but a pass from Pepper to McAfee took the ball to Tuscumbia's 20-yard line. Tuck dropped a pass as he sped over the goal and Tuscumbia took the ball on her 20-yard line. A pass to Archer netted 20. Beck skirted his own left end for 15. Ricks went off tackle for 8. Sanders made it first down. Time out was taken for Beck as a pass was blocked. Ricks and Beck gained but 2 in a couple of tries as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter.
The quarter opened with the ball in Albany's possession on her own 25-yard line. Tuck worked the shift play for a 6-yard advance. A double pass to Tuck netted 2 more. McAfee crashed through for first down. Pepper intercepted a long pass and returned 15 on the first play. A pass to Lee was good for 20. Smith intercepted a pass on his own 20-yard line. Ricks failed to gain and Beck kicked to the middle of the field without return.

Tuck went around end for 6. McAfee hit the line for 3 and McAfee again made first down. A pass to Batten advanced the ball 15 yards, the pass being worked from a shift formation, making Batten on end. On a delayed pass Pepper made 2. On an end around play Handy took the ball to Tuscumbia's 10-yard line. Tuck dove in for 5. McAfee added 2 and McAfee went to the 6-inch line. Tuck bucked it over. Handy kicked goal. Tuscumbia 0, Albany 7.

Batten kicked to Beck, who returned 20. Sanders failed, but Beck made 6. Tuscumbia suffered a 5-yard penalty for offside. A pass to Archer made first down. Beck went around his own right end for 18.

Third Quarter.
Batten kicked off. Tuscumbia used the lockstep for a 5-yard advance. Beck carrying the ball, pass to Mays gave Tuscumbia another, first down. Smith hit the line for 5. Smith gained 2 more, but Sanders lost the same yardage. Beck went around end for first down. Smith fumbled, but recovered. Ricks made first down in two smashes on Albany's 20-yard line. Lee stopped Beck and then spilled Ricks without gain. Beck made only a yard and a placement kick was blocked. On the line up Tuck made 10 yards on the first play, a delayed buck. Time out for Smith. On an end around play Handy again raced to Tuscumbia's 15-yard line. Tuck gained 4 through the line and McAfee raced around his own left end for a touchdown. Handy kicked goal. Albany 14, Tuscumbia 0.

Batten kicked to Beck. Sanders failed on the first play and McAfee got Ricks without material advance. Beck ran all over the field for a 2-yard gain around his own right end. Archer snatched a pass for a 20-yard advance. Pepper intercepted a pass and waved back 5. Albany's first pass failed and Ricks intercepted the second. Lee stopped Ricks as time was called.

Fourth Quarter.
Archer again received a 20-yard pass. Beck made 3 and a pass was grounded and Ricks and Sanders were held, the ball going over. McAfee went off tackle for 15 yards. Tuck skirted end for 8. On a delayed buck McAfee lost 2. Tuck went through for first down. A pass to Handy netted 40. Again Handy had placed the ball on Tuscumbia's 15-yard line. A pass was grounded, McAfee lost 1, but Tuck hit the line for 4. Handy gained 3 and the ball went over on Tuscumbia's 5 yard line. Beck kicked to Batten without return. Pepper went around his own left end for 15. A pass failed, but Tuck made 8. Pepper and McAfee made first down. Tuck added 2 and on a split buck, McAfee went across. Batten kicked the goal. Tuscumbia 0, Albany 21.

In the last few minutes, two on-side kicks gave Tuscumbia her best opportunity to score, but Albany finally held and took the ball, after a kick, on her own 15-yard line just before the close. A pass to Lee netted Albany 20-yards as the whistle blew.

Mr. Thatford objected to a remark made by Mr. Foster in his argument following the trial of the case.

YOUR HEALTH

How Some Diseases Are Carried to the Danger of All

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
Commissioner of Health, New York City

HAVE you ever considered how many diseases are spread by the discharges from the nose and mouth? If not, you will be amazed at the number of them.

Every doctor will warn you of the dangers associated with what is called "droplet infection." Every time you cough or sneeze or talk violently there sprays from your nose and throat a vapor of moisture. Material particles of saliva or of mucus fly into the air and land where they may.

If you have some disease which is transmitted by the discharges of the nose and throat you are capable of producing "droplet infection."

The first disease we think of in this way is tuberculosis. Tuberculosis is one of the most widely distributed diseases. It attacks all races, and you may be surprised to know that almost every individual, at some time or other in his life, has some form of tuberculosis.

A famous Italian pathologist examined six hundred bodies sent to him for autopsy, and found, taking them consecutively, that 597 had evidence of active or healed tuberculosis. Think of it—all but three had been attacked by this ever-watchful disease.

Tuberculosis may be spread by the discharges from the nose and mouth. Everybody knows that diphtheria is carried by the discharges from the throat. Direct contact and droplet infection are the most common means of conveying the germs of this dread disease.

Diphtheria is particularly common and fatal among little children, especially under 5 years of age. It is at this time of life that everything goes to the child's mouth. His fingers, toys, pencils, food—everything he handles goes there.

Contagion may be carried by this natural habit. Lots of persons are carriers of the germs of diphtheria, who are perfectly immune to the disease. Droplet infection is always to be feared, and the presence of carriers is a constant menace to society.

Influenza and pneumonia are carried by the nose and mouth discharges. About the former we know little, but regarding what we called the "fixed types" of pneumonia there can be no doubt of the danger of contact and association with a person afflicted with either of these diseases may result in infection.

Measles, scarlet fever, whooping cough, mumps, spotted fever, infantile paralysis, all these are carried by droplet infection. That is, it is believed this means of transmission is the most likely one. You will see now why health officials are so opposed to spitting and to overgrowing. Intimate contact and such unsanitary conditions as tend to expose the hands or otherwise into your mouth the hands of a diseased person make it probable that you may be the victim of the same germs.

The methods of escaping droplet infection will suggest themselves to you at once.

TWO ARE NAMED.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 24.—Special.—Sydney J. Bowie, of Birmingham, one of the directors of the successful campaign for the ratification of the seaport amendment, and Alfred L. Staples, prominent banker of Mobile, were appointed members of the state harbor commission by Governor Kilby today. Mr. Bowie will succeed Col. J. M. Williams, of Montgomery, who was killed when his automobile was struck by a locomotive in North Carolina in July. Mr. Staples will take the place vacated by W. C. Agee, of Selma, resigned.

Offerings Asked For Thanksgiving

The ladies of the Benevolent Society are making active efforts to prevent the disappointment of any child or family this Thanksgiving day, and to this end the generosity and good will of the people of the Twin Cities is being appealed to. According to Mrs. H. T. Gill, arrangements have been made with the Malone Garage on Second Avenue, to have any donations to the Thanksgiving offering left there, at once; or some time before Thanksgiving eve. Through a similar courtesy, from the Gaver Brothers Insurance Agency on Bank Street, those who desire to do so can leave their offerings there. Money, food and clothing will be gladly received by the Benevolent Society, and distributed promptly among those who may be in need at the Thanksgiving season.

White-of-Egg

in Calumet a Vital Element Most Baking Powders Lack

Don't use a leavener that does not contain white-of-egg. When you do you take chances—you run the risk of spoiling your bakings.

CALUMET

The Economy BAKING POWDER

contains a small amount of white-of-egg. This makes it possible for representatives of the company to test it frequently for leavening strength—right on the dealer's counter. Nothing but absolutely fresh stock is permitted to remain on the dealers' shelves. It must always be up to the high Calumet standard.

Remember the white-of-egg in Calumet protects the success of your bakings. It is the economical positive bake-day aid and its sale is 2 1/2 times as much as that of any other brand.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.
